Dear Colaborers in Christ*, Despite the frigid temperatures here in El Paso/Juarez, Mexico during January, God's grace continues to melt cold hearts! The Lord gave us a great first Sunday service to start 2022 with over 50 people attending, and with two new families visiting. Among them was Señora Brenda Mireles who had received Christ at our open-air meeting the week before. Her son Angel received Christ during the Sunday service, and two other visitors. Believer Isabel Chavez invited me to speak with her family, and as I sat in their living room, I shared the gospel with her husband Adan, and her two sons, Misael and Alan. They were very receptive, and by God's grace I was able to lead them to a saving knowledge of Christ. They all attended the following Sunday!

Other Victories - Our Sunday-school classes are going very well, averaging between 20-30 kids in each service! Sylvia has trained two young ladies, Karla Canseco and Mia Michelle Garcia to be teachers, and two other young ladies are on the way. On Sunday, January 23rd, five precious kids made professions of faith in our Savior in Irma Granillo's class! PTL! On Monday, January 31st, 2022 Sylvia and I, and Pastor Carlos Diaz were able to initiate our Mexican Bible Institute classes with twelve students. Attendance has increased to 18 students!

In other news, our Mexican church recently voted to support our first missionaries, Isaac & Chayito Luna, who are going to reach indigenous tribes in Southern Sudan, Africa. They plan on translating the Bible in their languages. On Sunday, February 16th, Alonso Hernandez and his family came to church. I preached the gospel to Alonso while he was in jail a year ago! His wife Blanca got saved, and two of their beautiful daughters are taking music classes.

Go and tell! Many others have been won to Christ by door to door evangelism: Señor Guadalupe Luna received Christ with tears on Saturday, February 20th and came to church on Wednesday with four grandchildren. She tragically lost her husband five years ago due to the drug cartels. On Saturday, March 5th Señor Rosario Monte received Christ and came to church with his beautiful daughter Marisabel on Sunday. That same Sunday an evangelized couple also came!

Brethren Pray for us! 1) ten faithful families to attend by our 2nd anniversary in June, 2) more precious souls to be saved and baptized, 3) Becky and Daniel's studies at West Coast, 4) Our safety, 5) God's provision of a property for a church and a Christian School 7) Bible Institute students to graduate and start churches. THANK YOU for standing in the gap as we cast the gospel net in the city of Juarez!

Love in Christ, Jim, Sylvia, Becky and Danny Campana
