

FEDENA FLYER

11/2/20

Dear Praying Friends,

Greetings in His matchless Name!

Please accept my apologies for the loooong gap between these newsletters. I have excuses but I know you don't want to hear them.

Much has transpired since my last communique. I have travelled to sunny [not!] Florida to see my kids, grand kids, and great grandkids. That part of the trip was "sunny". The fishing was lousy. The food was great. Crystal, Sarah and Sara, and Stephanie are all great cooks. Crystal made me all my favorite foods. I stayed in Paul's nice home for most of the time and in Jason's new home for 2 nights. I spent most daytimes at Stephanie and Andrew's and their 3 sweet and beautiful girls (Kenzie, Hannah and Ariana) and with Crystal and Jerry who live with them. Paul and Sarah's twins, Jack & Julia just had their 10th birthday while I was there. Amelia is now driving (scary! 😬). Chase, Jason & Sara's son, is now 3 and as handsome as ever.

The trip was 10 days. (I don't know whatever happened to "social distancing" on the planes, but they were completely crowded and I was squished between two people for 3 out of the 4 flights!?! (COVID "guidelines" are very flexible, I guess, depending on the profits involved?)

I left PA one day after the Pres. Election and while I was away YOU elected Joe Biden...(I guess! 😬) It seems that there were some suspicious votes taking place. 😬 I personally think Pres. Trump should rightly contest the election based on these shady dealings. Otherwise we can never have confidence in any future election and we may end up with a one-party system or even an oligarch or dictatorship. Just sayin! (I think anyone who voted for any candidate of either party who believes in butchering babies (abortion) will have to answer to the Lord who calls the "shedding of innocent blood" an "abomination"!)

For the last couple of days I have been feeling lousy with aches and pains. (Not COVID) The clock is ticking on my time on earth. I am now 86 years old, I have 8 heart vessel blockages and only one small vessel with a stent inside another stent feeding blood to my heart, and I can see Heaven in my very near future. By the way, regardless of your age or health Heaven is in your future too...if you know Christ as Savior. So death is not scary at all for the believer, in fact, I keep asking the Lord when He is going to call me home to see Him and my wonderful wife, Shirley. I miss her every day!

I am to the place in life where when I buy products, like toothpaste, for example, I try to think of what size tube to buy so I don't end up wasting any!

The lengthening shadow of our last enemy is looming ever larger for me and you as well. I praise the Lord that God's Word not only calls death our LAST ENEMY, but also says "O death where is thy sting...O grave where is thy victory!"

Of course, like you, I would prefer to go up in the Rapture and I am longing for that day, but either UP, UP AND AWAY then, or to simply wake up in the Glory Land any day soon. "And so shall we ever be with the Lord."

I am presently re-reading Randy Alcorn's book called "HEAVEN" and it is helping me see where Heaven is, what Heaven is really like. I highly recommend it. (Do YOU know where Heaven is, what we will do there for eternity, etc., etc.?)

I am still utilizing every opportunity to teach (at Harbor Baptist's East Gate College) on Monday nights and to preach in my home church for Pastor Louis Guarneri in Lawrenceville, NJ or wherever the Lord may open the door. Last Sunday I preached at the First Baptist Church in Easton, PA for all the services while Pastor Arthur Gilmore was on vacation. I also go door-to-door in my neighborhood to get the Gospel to the 657 homes in my section of Levittown. I am down to less than 100 homes at this point. KEEP LOOKING UP!

Sincerely in the Savior,

Pastor (emeritus) Paul C. Fedena